THE LATE DR. ROBERTS. -[Correspondence of the Richmond Whig.]-LIBERTY, Jan. 14.-Several incidents are reported here in connection with the bloody tragedy enacted on our streets last Wednesday, which I communicate, as the affair is still the subject of general comment and the occasion of considerable feeling throughout our section, and everything in regard to it is read with interest.

It is stated that Dr. Roberts, on the night which preceded the fatal Wednesday on which the collision occurred resulting in his death, anticipating a difficulty and appreciating the serious consequences likely to flow from it, made his will, bequeathing what articles of personal property he had about him, his jewelry, books, &c., to his friends, and directing what disposition should be made of his effects in the event of his death. Having conducted correspondence with several young ladies, he arranged to have their letters returned, and in all respects made such preparations as befit one who goes forth not expecting to return.

The interment of the remains of the unfortunate young man in the cemetery grounds near the village, took place on Friday afternoon, under the auspices of the Piedmont Council Friends of Temperance, to which the deceased belonged. There was a lengthy procession, in which appeared the members of the Council in regalia, and a large concourse of citizens, embracing many ladies. The funeral services were conducted in an affecting and impressive manner by Rev. Dr. Shepperson of the Presbyterian Church. The grave was profusely decked with wreaths and crosses of evergreens and knots of flowers, the symbols of the grief of friends and touching tributes to the memory of the departed.

An awkward and unfortunate mistake occurred in the burial of Dr. Roberts. The persons who selected the spot unintentionally located it on some family plat which had not been enclosed, though several lost members of the household were buried in it. Saturday Dr. Roberts had to be disinterred, and removed to another grave in grounds not engaged for other uses.

ADVANTAGES OF GOOD NATURE,-Some country people who possibly had been instructed by the Tony Lumpkin of the town, caught sight of the Duke of Beaufort's drag and four, with his son driving, passing through Monmouth the other day, and on the horn being sounded promptly hailed the equipage, which accordingly pulled up, imagining that it was the stagecoach bound for Ross, a neighboring town. They were informed that the coach was going to Kernebridge, but the Duke added that he could take them a part of the way to Ross. The woman accordingly took her seat inside whilst the man ascended, and it is understood that they subsequently expressed a high opinion of the accommodation afforded by the Kernebridge coach. It is wonderful how much a piece of real good nature of this kind on the part of "swells" will, in England, sometimes tell at the next election, or it may be long years after, on such an occasion. Some years since, when a county in the west of England was hotly contested, a fine old farmer came up to the successful candidate and said, "You don't know me, sir, but I know you, and I've come this day to give you a plumper (i, e, unsplit vote); and have brought my two sons and three sons-in-law to do the same. The 'M. P.' was profuse in his acknowledgments, but admitted that he had not the pleasure of recollecting his friend. Where upon the man replied. "Do you remember, sir, that one winter's afternoon ten years ago you were just entering your park gates when you discovered a man with a cart whose horse had gone dead lame and who didn't know how to get along?" The "M. P." fancied he did recollect something of the sort. "Well," said the farmer, "I remember it well eno," at any rate, for you told me to come into your house, had my horse put up and attended to, and there I lived for three days, with my horse in your stable, and when I asked you what there was to pay you gave me a sovereign !"-London Paper.

THE WONDERS OF THE FAR WEST .- GOV. Langford, of Montana, who accompanied the recent expedition under Surveyor General Washburn to the hitherto unexplored and wonderful region about the headwaters of the Yellowstone river, has been prevailed upon by many leading men to return from New York this week and give in a lecture an account of what he saw. From a glance at the report of General Washburn, and the notes of Governor Langford, we find the party discovered a mountain peak with a pearly perpendicular front over 11,000 feet high; estaracts and waterfalls of the most marvellens, character, one perpendicular fall in the salinatione of 315 feet; active volcances, through mud and sulphurous water hundreds of feet into the air; fountains and bolling severa of feet into the air; forcing a stream of bolling for the feet magnitude, one of the latter severa for the training for the severa monument, while it is trivially of these geysers and volcances the intelligent that the through the caverns of the earth were appalling to hear. Also, a description of the Yellowstone lake and its surroundings.—Wash. Rep. Langford, we find the party discovered a moun-

A VERY MODEST REQUEST.—The bill to aid in the constructions of twenty or more first-class iron steamships, together with ship-yards, machine shops, rolling mills, wharves, docks, &c., introduced in the Senate Monday, proposes to incorporate certain gentlemen under the name of the American Mail and Ocean Transportation Company, for the purpose above in-dicated, and provides that the Government of the United States shall pay the interest of the first mortgage bonds of the company, to the amount of $20,000,000 in gold, for thirty years, not becoming responsible, however, for the payment of the principal. In reture the company steamships are to carry the United States mails

NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY The following letters speak for themselves: Washington, Nov. 4, 1870.

Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir-After a very thorough and impartial trial of your Crystal Discovery for a month, I feel compelled to acknowledge its very great superiority over any article now in use for the purpose designed the speedy restoration of the color and growth of the hair, and no one using it according to directions can fail, I am convinced, to attain this much desired result to perfection. Washington, D. C., July 25, 1870. Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir-It affords me pleasure to say that I have used your Crystal Discovery with perfect success. Having tried many others, I find yours superior to any I have heretofore used, and I cannot too highly recommend it as a rapid promoter of the growth of the hair, and by a few applications restoring it to its from any objectionable matter.

Alexandria, Vx., Sept. 10, 1870.

Mr. Arthur Nattans: Sir—I have great pleasure in testifying to the excellence of your Crystal Discourse of the control of tal Discovery for the Hair. My back hair is remarkably long and thick, and became prematurely gray, (this being hereditary.) In eight days it resumed its natural color, chestnut-brown, coloring every hair. I like your preparation for its natural color, and freedom from all its purity, pleasant odor, and freedom from all mineral and poisonous substances, as well as its other excellencies. I will recommend it to my acquaintances. Very respectfully, Miss Labert

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unlitting them for either business, study, society or mar-

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumptions tion, &c. MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply im-Mediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplations

MARRIAGE. Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness, Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an Il-time sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, lelaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, leafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the lose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from sending him to that undiscovered country whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or initiations comments, and instead of being reinjurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigorand Happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment. DR. JOHNSTON, OFFICE, No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET, BALTIMORE, MD.
